

Memorial Roundtable Celebrating the Life and Work of Prof. C. H. Alexandrowicz

The Tamil Nadu National Law University, Tiruchirappalli is pleased to announce that it will host a Memorial Roundtable on June 30, 2019 at its premises to celebrate the life and work of one of the most distinguished scholars in International Law, Prof. C. H. Alexandrowicz (1902– 75), who is now largely forgotten by the modern-age scholars of International Law and History.

Prof. Alexandrowicz engaged in the writing of global history of law that disengaged from traditional parochial and regional histories. There is a pressing need to bring his scholarship to the front to counter the pervasive penchant for Eurocentrism in the History of International Law. His scholarship is in many ways prescient and offers us a refreshing view with a deep historical perspective that needs to be reinvigorated and presented before the young generation of inquisitive and non-confirmist researchers.

Against this backdrop, the purpose of the Roundtable is to provide a platform for contemporary experts in International Law from all over the world to come together and engage in commemorating the scholarship of the extraordinary luminary that India was blessed to host in the immediate post-partition era and who has been a source of inspiration for generations of scholars of International law across the world in the second half of the 20th century.

Distinguished Speakers who have agreed to speak at the Roundtable:

- Prof. B. S. Chimni, Former Professor of International Law, Jawaharlal Nehru University.
- Prof. M. K. Sinha, Director, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi.
- Prof. V.G. Hegde, Professor of International Law, Jawaharlal Nehru University.
- Prof. A. David Ambrose, Professor, Department of Legal Studies, University of Madras.
- Dr. Prabhash Ranjan, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Legal Studies, South Asian University.
